

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Valentin A. Corrales,
 Petitioner
 v.
 Calvin Johnson, et al.,
 Respondents

Case No. 2:22-cv-00942-JAD-BNW

Order Denying Motion for Enlargement of Time Without Prejudice Because Case is Closed

[ECF No. 5]

Petitioner Valentin A. Corrales, a pro se Nevada prisoner, did not properly commence an action in this Court because he failed to (1) file a petition stating grounds for relief and (2) either pay the standard filing fee or file a complete application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”). Although Corrales filed motions for appointment of counsel and for an evidentiary hearing<sup>1</sup> in which he referred to a petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254, he did not file a petition. On June 13, 2022, the Clerk of the Court sent Corrales two copies of 2254 petition forms, but Corrales did not file a petition. On July 26, 2022, the Court dismissed this action without prejudice, entered judgment, and closed this case.<sup>2</sup>

On August 17, 2022, Corrales filed a Motion for Enlargement of Time requesting an extension of time to file an IFP application.<sup>3</sup> Unfortunately, Corrales may no longer file documents in this case because it is a closed case.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the motion for enlargement of time [ECF No. 5] is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE because this case is now closed. If Corrales wishes to submit any filings or requests for relief, he must present them in a new case with a new case

1 number and submit proper documents to initiate the case. Corrales may no longer file any
2 documents in this closed case, except for a motion seeking reconsideration of this order or relief
3 from the judgment entered.
